

Collocations

Instructions: In medicine some words are used together quite often. Determine which words in column A can be used naturally with the words in column B. In many cases it is natural to insert “the patient’s” between words in column A and words in column B.

Example: The medicine is used to control the patient’s blood pressure.

A	B
a) Control	1. Hearing
b) Check	2. Eyes
c) Measure	3. Ears
d) Test	4. Vision
e) Examine	5. Rectum
f) Look at	6. Prostate
g) Feel	7. Chest
h) Listen to the patient’s	8. Lungs
	9. Blood pressure
	10. Heart
	11. Throat
	12. Neck
	13. Blood
	14. Glucose
	15. Urine
	16. Asthma
	17. Diabetes
	18. Breast